

Rural Resilience Indian Excellence

NCRI ANNOUNCEMENT FOR RESEARCH PROJECTS

NCRI is proposes small grant of ₹ 40,000/- to the Faculty/ Research Scholars to study the Rural Health, Rural Education, Rural Communication, Rural Governance, Rural Entrepreneurship and any other Government of India flagship programs like Swachha Bharath and Skill Development focused on Rural Concerns. The project is for 2months, total grant is ₹ 40,000/-. It is released on submission of 40 page report along with photos and day wise Rural Engagement Diary for the one month in field. The study will be published as a monograph by NCRI at NCRI cost. This could start after 1st July and close before 15th October 2017.

Eligibility: Faculty from university/NIT/IIT department and research scholars (those who have completed Ph.D and those who have submitted Ph.D) and interested to work on Rural Concerns, and ready to stay one month in a village.

Note: The interested faculty/research scholars are requested to send the synopsis of the research proposal to aps@ncri.in. For further details contact Dr. D. N. Dash, Asst. Director, NCRI Ph: 040-23422112, 9848038112 (SMS for details)

NCRI ANNOUNCEMENT FOR RESEARCH PROJECTS/SURVEY - TO STUDY OF FARMERS RESILIENCE

NCRI invites project proposal from the faculty of the university departments to study/survey the farmers resilience from natural and man-made calamities in Costal Andhra, Rayalaseema in Andhra Pradesh and in South Karnataka in Karnataka State. The proposed grant is ₹ 2,00,000/- for each project and the project duration is for 3 months.

1. An amount of ₹ 50,000/- will be released on submission of inception report at the end of first month,
2. another ₹ 50,000/- will be released on completion of field work and report at the end of second month and
3. on submission of final report ₹ 1,00,000/- will be released. The study/survey report will be published by NCRI at NCRI cost. This will start after 1st July and close before 30th November 2017.

Eligibility: Faculty from university department having interest to work on Rural Concerns.

Note: The interested faculty members are requested to send the synopsis of the research proposal to aps@ncri.in. For further details contact Dr.D.N.Dash, Asst. Director, NCRI Ph: 040-23422112, 09848038112 (SMS for details).